

Pupils and Parents Privacy Notice General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform parents and pupils of Archibald First School about what we do with your personal information. This Notice may be subject to change.

Who are we?

Archibald First School is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4 (7) of GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your personal data is processed. We have a responsibility to you and your personal data and will only collect and use this in ways which are compliant with data protection legislation.

The school has appointed Veritau Ltd to be its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to ensure that the school is compliant with GDPR and to oversee data protection procedures. Veritau's contact details are:

What information do we collect?

The categories of information that we collect, hold and share include the following:

- Personal information of pupils and their family members e.g. name, pupil number, DOB and address
- Educational attainment
- Free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information
- Assessment information
- Information relevant to the welfare of pupils and their needs within the educational setting eg. SEN information, behaviour, safeguarding, exclusions.
- Photographs and communication preferences

- School trips
- Extra-curricular activities
- Before and after school clubs

We will also process certain 'special category' data about our pupils including:

- Relevant medical information- please note that where the pupil has a severe allergy or is thought to be at risk of needing emergency care for a medical issue then this will be shared with all the staff. We may do this in the form of photo identification in the staff room to ensure that all staff are aware of the issues should an emergency situation arise
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities information
- Characteristics (such as language, nationality, country of birth, race, ethnicity and religion).

Why do we collect your personal data?

We use the information we collect:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to safeguard pupils
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

Any personal data that we process about our pupils and parents is done so in accordance with Article 6 and Article 9 of GDPR:

Our legal basis for processing your personal data, in line with Article 6(1)(c) include:

- Education Act 1944,1996, 2002
- Education and Adoption Act 2016
- Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013
- Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005
- Education and Skills Act 2008
- Children Act 1989, 2004
- Children and Families Act 2014
- Equality Act 2010
- Education (Special Educational Needs) Regulations 2001

We also process information in accordance with Article 6(e) and Article 9(2)(g) as part of the official authority vested in us as Data Controller and for reasons of substantial public interest.

This is in pursuance with Schedule 1(6)(1) of the Data Protection Act 2018. Such processing, which is not mandatory but is considered to be in our pupils' interests, include:

- School trips
- Extra-curricular activities
- Before and after school clubs

We mainly collect pupil information through admission forms and common transfer file or secure file transfer from previous school. The majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory in line with your parental responsibility – for further details please see the following link <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dealing-with-issues-relating-to-parental-responsibility/understanding-and-dealing-with-issues-relating-to-parental-responsibility>.

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. When we do process this additional information, we will ensure that we ask for your consent to process this.

Who do we obtain your information from?

Much of the information we process will be obtained directly from you (pupils and parents). We will also process information received from:

- Department for Education (DfE)
- Local Education Authority (Newcastle upon Tyne)
- Previous schools attended
- National Health Service bodies

Who do we share your personal data with?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- our Local Education Authority (Newcastle upon Tyne)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Teachers2Parents (Text Messaging Service to parents/carers)
- National Health Services which may include school nurse, educational psychology service, speech and language therapy service, occupational therapy, physiotherapy, paediatrics NHS, audiology services, eye test service

Where applicable we share pupil information with:

- Special Educational Needs support services such as caseworkers, SEN advisors, assessment, provision and review service and early education additional support team.
- Child Protection Online Management software (CPOMs)
- Tapestry
- External provider of after school clubs (club list, emergency contacts and medical/allergy needs)

For more information on information sharing with the DfE (including the National Pupil Database and Census) please go to: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

We will not share any information about you outside the school without your consent unless we have a lawful basis for doing so.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

Archibald First School will keep your data in line with our Information Policy. Most of the information we process about you will be retained as determined by statutory obligations. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is necessary to fulfil our organisational needs.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under GDPR parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation
- to request access to your personal data that we hold, and be provided with a copy of it
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted
- to object to your personal data being processed

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO on the address provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns, you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (the Data Protection Regulator) about the way in which the school has handled your personal data. You can do so by contacting:
